ABOUT AUSTRALIANS TOGETHER

Australians Together is a not-for-profit organisation. We're a passionate and diverse group of First Nations people and non-indigenous people who want to see lived experiences of First Nations people improved. We recognise there's a wound in the spirit of our nation, and for healing to take place, we need to work together. Our staff, consultants and collaborators are located across Australia, and we respectfully learn from, and partner with, First Nations cultural and community Elders and leaders, academics and educators.

THE ROLE

As a Partnerships Manager, your role will be to support, manage and maintain key partners and help engage and develop new relationships in schools and workplaces across Australia. You're driven by a desire to see educators embed First Nations perspectives in their classroom, to help the next generation learn more about meaningful change within their organisation. Your high level of confidence, driven attitude and strong communication skills will gain the trust of leadership within schools and workplaces across Australia, with the goal of implementing the Australians Together suite of resources within them.

YOU ARE...

- Always looking for an opportunity: you have a keen eye for identifying and seeking potential prospects. This may include travelling to key meetings and conducting workshops. Your ability to listen and uncover their needs, by asking planned and thoughtful questions, will result in mutually beneficial partnerships. You have a tenacity to nurture and build an opportunity over a period of time to ensure it becomes a partnership.
- Outstanding at managing relationships: you have exceptional verbal and written communication skills and present in a professional manner. Your relationship-focused approach will ensure that when a partner is onboard, you can retain and grow the partnership accordingly.
- Goals and results driven: you enjoy the challenge and focus of having goals and you have a proven track record in achieving these goals and facilitating great outcomes for all involved.
- Proactive with a can-do attitude: you're an enthusiastic and motivated self-starter with a can-do approach. Although you thrive in a team environment, you work independently when needed. With your great time-management skills, you can plan and juggle to ensure everything runs smoothly.
